General Homeowner and ECC Responsibilities

A. As per Section 3.7 of the Blue Book Declarations including 1st thru 4th Amendments (Sept 11, 1990) ...

Maintenance of Lots. This section discusses the Homeowner's responsibility to their individual Lot and to the Community as a whole, with regards to maintenance and improvements "thereon shall at all times be maintained by the Owner in such a manner as to prevent them from becoming unsightly, unsanitary, or a hazard to health and safety". In addition, it specifically discusses the "rights" of the BOD with regards to maintenance. As a Homeowner, you should read and understand Section 3.7 as it relates to your rights and responsibilities in addition to the rights and responsibilities of the HOA in governing actions on each Lot.

B. As per Section 7 of the Blue Book Declarations including 1st thru 4th Amendments (Sept 11, 1990)...

The Environmental Control Committee. This section creates the ECC and commits them to specific tasks associated with the Homeowner compliance of maintenance and other issues as directed by the BOD

General Information – ECC Responsibilities

- A. The ECC has been tasked with the responsibility to regulate and report (to the BOD) any issues regarding the overall condition of the Community including individual Lots. In doing so, the ECC must:
- Be notified of ANY and ALL changes / modifications to the exterior areas of the property prior to any work being performed .. This notification is accomplished via an ECC Application form which is available at the front office or on the Assateague Pointe website
  - Be notified of and approve (by signature of at least 3 members) any and all "improvements, repairs, modifications, color changes, etc" requested by the Homeowner and / or BOD
  - Inspect each Lot within the Community at the beginning of each "season" (dates to be determined by agreement of the ECC and BOD) to determine that Lots are in compliance with the regulations / guidelines
  - Notify and communicate with the Homeowners (and BOD) of any non-compliance issues which may have been determined through the inspection process
  - Attempt to set up a reasonable schedule, with the Homeowners, to get any conditions corrected in a timely manner
  - If conditions are not completed, the ECC then begins a "hearing" process where Homeowners will be notified via "certified mail with return receipt requested" of the non compliance. After the 3rd Letter, a hearing date and time will be set, where the Homeowner can present explanations as to why the tasks have not been completed. If the Homeowner is still in disagreement with the findings of the ECC, they have the right to ask for an appeal hearing with the BOD
